Development of activities	This activity can be done both in “paper way” and in “digital way” by creating a word file for instance instead of physical paper. Activity 1: introduction about what is a portfolio. Usually, the portfolio is the list of works carried out by a professional, possibly accompanied by explanatory images. In this case, to the pupils is asked to present their selves and to collect all the activities they do in English and the vocabulary they discover. (20 minutes) Activity 2: first step is to present their selves. On a paper they have to draw their selves and write a short description of who they are, what they like, what they do...

Activity 3: each paper has a different topic and collects different texts or list of vocabulary. For example, vocabulary about the family or vocabulary about the different jobs. This activity allow to introduce grammar topics, for instance if the pupil wants to talk about work, future sentences will be introduced.

Activity 4: at the end of the period and the whole sessions, each pupil has a kind of personal book to read or to show to family.
